ARTICLE 1

Commencement and Transition Period

1. This Constitution was amended at the 51st Congress held on 3 August 2017 and comes into effect on 1 November 2017 (“2017 Constitution”).
2. A new IAAF Constitution was adopted at a Special Congress held on 3 December 2016, and it comes into effect on 1 January 2019 (“2019 Constitution”). The 2019 Constitution was amended at the 51st IAAF Congress held on 3 August 2017. The 2019 Constitution (as amended) will replace this Constitution and come into force on 1 January 2019, except for specific provisions as stated in the 2019 Constitution to allow the Council, Executive Board, Committees and other provisions of the 2017 Constitution to remain in force for a transition period for the elections at the 2019 Election Congress. These specific provisions shall remain in force until 1 October 2019 (at which time they shall cease to be in force).

ARTICLE 2

The International Association of Athletics Federations

1. The International Association of Athletics Federations (IAAF) is the world governing body for the sport of Athletics.
2. The IAAF is established for an indefinite period with legal status as an association under the laws of Monaco (Act N°1.355 of 23 December 2008).

Member

A national governing body for Athletics affiliated to the IAAF.

Membership

Membership of the IAAF.

Member Federation Official

Any person who is elected or appointed to a position in which they represent a Member Federation, including, but not limited to, the president, vice-president, members of its executive body, the general secretary and delegates at Congress meetings.

National Federation

The Member of the IAAF to which an athlete or other person under this Constitution is affiliated directly or through club or another body affiliated to a Member.

Regulations

The Regulations of the IAAF as may be passed by the Council from time to time.

Rules

The rules of the IAAF, including the Competition Rules (which include the Technical Rules), the Former Code of Ethics, the Integrity Code of Conduct, the Rules of Congress Procedure and such other rules as approved from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Rules of Congress Procedure

The rules of the IAAF governing the procedure to be followed at the Congress.

Technical Rules

The Rules describing the technical rules of competition in Athletics as contained in the IAAF Competition Rules.

Territory

A geographical territory or region which is not a Country, but which has certain aspects of self-government, at least to the extent of being autonomous in the control of its sport and which is thus recognised as such by the IAAF.

Valid Vote

A valid vote is one that conforms to all stated requirements. The following shall not be counted as valid votes:

- (a) abstentions;
- (b) blank votes;
- (c) votes for more or fewer candidates than the number required;
- (d) votes declared void by the scrutineers whose decision shall be final, e.g., unintelligible votes.

Vetting Panel

The panel described in Article 19.8.

Note: All references to the masculine gender shall also include references to the feminine and all references to the singular shall also include references to the plural. A reference to a "person" shall include a natural person or bodies corporate, unless specified otherwise.

ARTICLE 4

Objects

The Objects of the IAAF are:

1. To act as the world governing body for the sport of Athletics.
2. To promote the sport of Athletics and its ethical values as an educational subject and life affirming and life enhancing activity.

3. To encourage participation in Athletics at all levels throughout the world regardless of age, gender or race.
4. To strive to ensure that no gender, race, religious, political or other kind of unfair discrimination exists, continues to exist, or is allowed to develop in Athletics in any form, and that all may participate in Athletics regardless of their gender, race, religious or political views or any other irrelevant factor.
5. To compile and enforce rules and regulations governing Athletics and to ensure in all competitions, whether sanctioned by the IAAF, an Area Association or a Member, that such rules and regulations shall be applied in accordance with their terms.
6. To supervise and enforce the obligations of Members.
7. To create and enforce a mechanism whereby disputes and disciplinary matters within Athletics are subject to procedures set out in the applicable Rules and to final resolution by arbitration.
8. To promote fair play in sport, in particular, to play a leading role in the fight against doping both within Athletics and externally in the wider sporting community and to develop and maintain programmes of detection, deterrence and education which are aimed at the eradication of the scourge of doping within sport.
9. To safeguard the authenticity and integrity of Athletics and to take all possible measures to eliminate corrupt conduct which might place the authenticity or integrity of Athletics at risk.
10. To foster and support the worldwide development of Athletics and the dissemination of technical, medical, logistical, statistical, financial or other information which achieves this aim to its Members and Area Associations.
11. To affiliate to the IOC and play a leading role in the achievement of the aims of the Olympic Movement. In particular, to assume full responsibility for the organisation, supervision and officiation of the Athletics programme at the Olympic Games.
12. To foster and develop links with other International Federations, National Governments, Inter-Governmental Organisations and International and National Non-Governmental Organisations in order to promote the interests of sport in general, and Athletics in particular, at all levels throughout the world.
13. To recognise World, Olympic and other records in Athletics as Congress considers should be recognised.
14. To encourage and support a responsible concern for environmental issues and to promote sustainable development in Athletics.
15. To organise and promote World Championships and any other Athletics championship, competition or even the Congress considers would be desirable.
16. To promote all rights of the IAAF towards the achievement of these Objects.

ARTICLE 5

Membership

1. The IAAF shall comprise national governing bodies for Athletics which have been democratically elected in accordance with their constitutions and which agree to abide by the Constitution and by the Rules and Regulations. A national governing body (including its executive body) which has not been so elected, even on an interim basis, shall not be recognised by the IAAF.

Eligibility for Membership

2. The national governing body for Athletics in any Country or Territory shall be eligible for Membership. Members that represented Territories on 31 December 2005 shall continue to be Members. No new Territories shall be admitted to the Membership. Only one Member from each Country or Territory may be affiliated to the IAAF, and such Member shall be recognised by the IAAF as the only national governing body for Athletics in such Country or Territory. The jurisdiction of Members shall be limited to the political boundaries of the Country or Territory that they represent.

In the event of a conflict that brings the activities of a Member to a standstill, an ad hoc committee may be set up, for a defined period, to be in charge of the management of Athletics in the Country or Territory concerned and/or the preparation of a general assembly to be conducted in accordance with the Member's constitution, provided always that such an ad hoc committee has been approved by the IAAF in advance.

Application for Membership

3. Application for Membership to the IAAF by a national governing body for Athletics shall be submitted in writing to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) who shall place the matter on the agenda for the next Council meeting. The application for Membership must include the following information:
  - (a) the national governing body's official address and contact details;
  - (b) a copy of its current constitution and by-laws, which are in compliance with the IAAF Constitution, Rules and Regulations;
  - (c) a list of its principal officers;
  - (d) its active membership (i.e. clubs, athletes, coaches, officials);
  - (e) a financial declaration as to its solvency;
  - (f) a formal undertaking to observe and abide by the Constitution, Rules and Regulations; and
  - (g) a report on past and current Athletics activities.
4. The Council shall have the power to elect a national governing body to Membership on a provisional basis. Membership provisionally granted by the Council must be confirmed at the next Congress, which confirmation must obtain a Special Majority.
5. On granting a national governing body Membership, Congress shall decide the name under which the Member is to be listed in the List of Members and under which the Member may compete.
6. There shall be an annual fee for each Member affiliated to the IAAF and this shall be paid in advance, by the 1st of January each year.

Rights and Obligations of Members

7. Subject to Article 6.12, all Members shall have equal rights at Congress.

8. Members shall have the following obligations of Membership:
- (a) to respect and further the Objects set out in Article 4;
  - (b) to comply with all applicable Rules and Regulations;
  - (c) to accept and comply with decisions of the Council and Congress;
  - (d) to insert into their constitutions and regulations such provisions as may be required by the Constitution, Rules and Regulations;
  - (e) to participate in international Athletics competitions (including World Athletics Series competitions and/or Area competitions as defined in the Competition Rules);
  - (f) to keep on file at the IAAF a copy of its current constitution and regulations in English or French;
  - (g) to make the annual report set out in Article 5.9.
9. All Members shall be required to submit to the IAAF, within the first three months of each year, an annual report which shall include the following information:
- (a) the Member's address, telephone, fax, e-mail, etc.;
  - (b) a list of principal officers;
  - (c) active membership of the National Federation (i.e., clubs, athletes, coaches, officials, etc.);
  - (d) major championships and competitions held during the year (senior, junior, men, women, etc.);
  - (e) national records at the close of the preceding year;
  - (f) a report on all in and out-of-competition testing conducted in the Country or Territory of the Member in the preceding year other than that carried out by the IAAF.

Members shall be required to submit a copy of the annual report to their respective Area Association at the same time as submitting a copy to the IAAF. Appropriate sanctions shall be imposed on Members which fail to meet the deadline for submitting the annual report to the IAAF and fail to supply the report within a reasonable period of time of receiving a written reminder to do so.

10. Neither this Constitution nor a Member's Membership shall constitute the IAAF or a Member being an agent of the other or create a partnership, joint venture or similar relationship between the parties, nor shall this Constitution constitute the authorisation of either party to act for or on behalf of the other.

Grouping of Members

11. There shall be one official List of Members composed of the Countries and Territories set out in Article 5.12.
12. For the purpose of electing the Council in accordance with Article 7.2, or any Area Association council or committee, Members shall be divided into the following areas:

Any abbreviation used for the names of these participating Members must be in conformity with the official abbreviations recognised by the Council.

Withdrawal of Membership

14. Any Member may withdraw its Membership at the end of any calendar year provided it has provided to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) at least six months' notice in writing of its intention to do so and provided the Member has settled all outstanding fees or other monies payable to the IAAF.
15. Withdrawal of Membership from the IAAF shall mean simultaneous withdrawal of membership from the Member's Area Association.

ARTICLE 6

Congress

1. The Congress is the general assembly of the Members and the highest authority of the IAAF.
2. A Congress shall be convened biennially in conjunction with the World Championships. The date and venue of the Congress shall be confirmed at the preceding Congress.

Powers of the Congress

3. The Congress alone shall have the power to amend the Constitution. Such power must be exercised in accordance with Article 13.

4. The Congress alone shall have the power to approve the following upon recommendations made in accordance with this Constitution unless specified otherwise:
  - (a) the members of the Disciplinary Tribunal;
  - (b) the Independent Members of the Integrity Unit Board;
  - (c) the members of the Integrity Unit Board Appointments Panel;
  - (d) members of the Vetting Panel.
5. The Congress shall have the power to suspend or take other sanctions against Members and to reinstate Members that have been suspended. Such power must be exercised in accordance with Article 15.
6. The Congress alone shall have the right to decide upon the introduction of new competitions directly organised by the IAAF, i.e., World Championships and World Cups.
7. The Congress shall have the power to establish and maintain an Ethics Board as an independent judicial body to adjudicate upon violations of the Former Code of Ethics.

The Congress Agenda

8. No later than two months before the Congress, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) shall dispatch the Congress agenda finalised by the Council. In years in which one or more elections are to be held, a list of the persons who have been nominated for the election(s) shall be attached to the Congress agenda.
9. Members may suggest a matter to the Council for inclusion on the Congress agenda at least 6 months prior to the Congress at which it is to be considered.
10. No business other than items appearing on the Congress agenda shall be dealt with.
11. The Council shall however have authority to add a new matter to the Congress agenda if it is an urgent item.

Participation at Congress

12. A Member may participate and vote in a meeting of the Congress provided that:
  - (a) it has taken part in at least one World Athletics Series event and/or one Area Competition as defined in the Competition Rules since the last meeting of the Congress; and
  - (b) it is not suspended.

A Member that is not suspended but is otherwise in breach of Article 6.12(a) may participate at the meeting of Congress but shall not be eligible to vote unless the Council determines that there was a justifiable reason for the breach in question.
13. Members shall only be represented by delegates. Delegates shall be affiliated to the Member which they represent. A delegate may represent only one Member.
14. Members must certify the names of their delegates in writing to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) prior to the commencement of the Congress meeting. A Member may have no more than three delegates present at the Congress, only one of whom may record votes from that Member.
15. The Council shall attend the Congress but no members of Council shall represent their own Member. Council members may speak, but may not vote.

16. Honorary Presidents, Honorary Life Vice-Presidents and Honorary Life Personal Members may attend the Congress and may speak, but may not vote.
17. The Chairpersons of all Committees and Commissions shall attend the Congress but no Committee or Commission Chairperson shall represent his or her own Member. Committee or Commission Chairpersons may speak but may not vote. Committee and Commission Members may attend the Congress as observers.
18. Area Associations formed for each of the six areas listed under Article 5.12 may appoint up to 3 representatives who may attend the Congress as observers.

Quorum

19. No business shall be transacted at Congress unless a quorum is present. A quorum shall exist if delegates representing one-third of the Members are present.
20. If it is clear that no quorum is present, the President shall adjourn the Congress until either such a quorum is present or, if there is no real possibility of a quorum within a reasonable period, until the next date for Congress or Special Congress as set out hereunder.

Proceedings of Congress

21. The Congress shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Congress Procedure.
22. Immediately after the number of Members present has been confirmed, the first voting strength shall be announced and the appointment of scrutineers nominated by the Council from the delegates at the Congress shall be put to the Congress for approval.
23. Confirmation of any Membership provisionally granted by the Council under Article 5.4 shall then be voted upon and the second voting strength shall be announced.

Elections

24. Elections will be held at the even numbered Congresses.
25. All nominations shall have been submitted to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) at least three months prior to the date of the Congress. In all cases, nominations can only be made by the Member to which the candidate is affiliated. Members shall be limited to nominating one person for election to each position. No person who is seventy (70) years old on the date of the Congress shall be eligible for election or re-election. A person who reaches the age of seventy (70) years whilst in office shall continue in office until the next Congress at which elections are held. No person who has served three (3) consecutive terms as President shall be eligible for re-election as President.
26. Electronic voting and tabulating equipment shall be used for voting on the election of members to the Council and Committees, whenever possible.

The elections shall be held in the following order:

- (a) President
- (b) Four Vice-Presidents
Congress shall first elect one female Vice-President. In order to be registered as voting, each Member shall vote for one candidate, no more and no less. Following election of one female Vice-President, Congress shall vote for the remaining 3 Vice-Presidents. This second vote is open to males and females. In order to be registered as voting, each Member shall vote for three candidates, no more and no less. If there are two or three successful candidates in the second vote from the same Area Association as the first elected female, then only the one with the most votes shall be declared elected, and, in the next round of voting, only candidates from the other Area Associations may participate.

(c) Treasurer

Females and males must each be represented by at least 5 individual members of Council. There shall be a single vote for the individual members of the Council. In order to be registered for voting, each Member shall vote for 15 candidates, no more and no less, of whom at least 5 shall be female and 5 shall be male. Subject to this rule, the candidates with the greatest number of votes shall be declared elected. If the candidates who have obtained the greatest number of votes do not include at least 5 candidates of each gender, the candidates of the affected gender who obtained the greatest number of votes of that gender, in sufficient number to meet the aforementioned minimum gender representation for individual members, shall be declared elected.

(e) Committees

The Technical Committee; the Women's Committee; the Race Walking Committee; the Cross Country Committee and any other Committee as the Congress may consider to be necessary or advisable.

Congress shall elect first the Chairperson of the Committee.

Congress shall next elect the individual members of each Committee. Females and males must each be represented by at least 3 members of the Technical Committee and at least 2 members of each of the Cross-Country, Race Walking and Women's Committees. There shall be a single vote for the individual members of the Committees. In order to be registered for voting for the Technical Committee, each Member shall vote for 15 candidates, no more and no less, of whom at least 3 shall be female and 3 shall be male. In order to be registered for voting for each of the Cross-Country, Race Walking and Women's Committees, each Member shall vote for 10 candidates, no more and no less, of whom at least 2 shall be female and 2 shall be male.

Subject to this rule, the candidates with the greatest number of votes shall be declared elected. If the candidates who have obtained the greatest number of votes do not include at least 3 candidates of each gender for the Technical Committee and at least 2 candidates of each gender for the Cross-Country, Race Walking and Women's Committees, the candidates of the affected gender who obtained the greatest number of votes of that gender, in sufficient number to meet the aforementioned minimum gender representation for individual members, shall be declared elected.

27. Elections held for the positions of the President, the 4 Vice-Presidents, the Treasurer and the Chairperson of each Committee shall require an Absolute Majority on the first round and a Simple Majority on the second round. Elections held for the individual members of Council and of each Committee shall be in accordance with the provisions of Articles 6.26(d) and (e).

28. If, at the time of an election, there are fewer candidates than there are vacancies, the President may invite all Members at the Congress to submit further nominations.

29. Any unsuccessful candidate for any position may, if also so nominated, be included in a subsequent election for any other position.

30. The Council and Committees elected at a Congress coinciding with a World Championships shall take office immediately following the end of the Championships.

Granting of IAAF Awards

31. On the recommendation of Council, in recognition of valued services given to the IAAF, Congress shall be entitled to nominate past Council Members as Honorary Life Presidents, Honorary Life

Vice-Presidents and Honorary Life Personal Members, without voting powers.

32. In addition, the Congress, on the recommendation of the Council, may grant the following awards:
- (a) IAAF Veteran Pin
For long and meritorious service to the cause of world Athletics within IAAF and/or Area Association activities. Normally, eighteen per Congress shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Area Associations and up to an additional three as directly proposed by the Council.
  - (b) Plaque of Merit
For exceptional service to the cause of world Athletics within Area Association activities, to be proposed by Area Associations.
  - (c) Admittance to the Hall of Fame
For exceptional, meritorious performances of outstanding athletes, and other persons within IAAF activities.

A suitable IAAF diploma will be presented to all recipients of the above awards as well as to Honorary Life Presidents, Honorary Life Vice-Presidents and Honorary Life Personal Members.

Special Congress

33. A Special Congress may be convened by the Council, and shall be so convened if not less than one-third of the Members give notice in writing to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) stating that they desire such a meeting and the reasons therefore. The Council shall summon a Special Congress to be held within three months from the receipt of the aforementioned notice.
34. If a Special Congress is so convened, the Rules of Congress Procedure shall apply to the proceedings before such Special Congress, where appropriate.

Convention

35. A Convention shall be held in conjunction with each ordinary Congress.
36. The purpose of the Convention is to discuss ideas, developments and issues facing Athletics and the IAAF. The programme for the Convention shall be decided by Council after consultation with Member Federations and Area Associations.
37. Each Member will be entitled to have, at its cost, such number of representatives (in addition to the delegates attending Congress) attend the Convention as is decided by Council, depending on venue capacity.

ARTICLE 7

Council

1. The Council shall be responsible for overseeing and supervising the activities of the IAAF, reporting to Congress every two years.

Composition of Council

2. The Council shall consist of:
  - (a) a President elected by Congress under Article 6;
  - (b) four Vice-Presidents elected by Congress under Article 6;
  - (c) a Treasurer elected by Congress under Article 6;
  - (d) fifteen individuals elected by Congress under Article 6; collectively referred to as “Elected Council Members”.
  - (e) Area Representatives: Presidents of each of the following six Area Associations in accordance with their constitutions:
    - Africa North America, Central America and the Caribbean
    - Asia Oceania
    - Europe South America
3. Not more than one Council Member may come from any one Member. In addition, each Council Member must be Eligible in accordance with Article 19.
4. At least six Council Members, including at least one Vice-President, shall be female.
5. Elected Council Members shall be in office for a period of four years. If during the first two years of the term of office, a vacancy arises in the Council for an elected Council Member, a substitute shall be elected at the next Congress for the residuary period.
6. Area Presidents shall be in office as Area Representatives on the Council for a period of four years and their term of office shall commence at the same time as the Elected Council Members. If at any time a position as Area Representative on the Council becomes vacant, the Area Association shall elect or designate a replacement in accordance with Article 10.5 below.

Proceedings of Council

7. The Council shall meet at least once a year. In advance of the meeting, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) shall provide all Council Members with an agenda of the business that is to be discussed at the meeting.
8. The President, or Senior Vice-President in his absence, will preside at all meetings of the Council.
9. At its first meeting of a new term of office, the Council shall nominate one of the Vice-Presidents as Senior Vice-President for the purpose of presiding over the Council in the absence of the President. The Vice-Presidents shall occupy honorary positions and shall have equal rights to other Council Members (other than the President and the Senior Vice-President, as referred to above).
10. The President and each Council Member shall have a vote on all decisions to be taken and all decisions of the Council shall be by a Simple Majority. The President, in the case of a tie in the voting, shall have a second or casting vote. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) shall not participate in the voting.

Powers and Duties of the Council

11. The Council’s powers shall include the following:

ARTICLE 13

Amendments to the Constitution

1. Amendments to the Constitution may be made at any Congress. Only the Congress shall be entitled to make amendments to the Constitution.
2. A proposal to amend the Constitution, unless this is proposed by the Council, must be submitted to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) by a Member, or by an Area Association council or congress, at least six months prior to the Congress at which it is to be considered. All proposals, together with the recommendations of the Council in relation to such proposals, shall be sent by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to the Members at least three months before the Congress.
3. A proposal for amendment to the Constitution may be withdrawn at any time but a withdrawal by a Member must be in writing unless it is made by the head of the delegation of that Member during the Congress.
4. To be accepted, any proposal to amend the Constitution must obtain a Special Majority.
5. Any subsequent amendments that may be necessary to the wording of Articles of the Constitution which have been passed by Congress can only be made by the President (or by any person or persons nominated by him for such purpose) or by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), and this provided no material change to the decision of Congress is made.
6. The amendments referred to in Article 13.5 shall be pointed out to the Council at the first opportunity and, if necessary, to Congress.
7. Amendments to the Constitution adopted by Congress shall take effect on the publication of the Constitution in English, unless otherwise specified by the Congress. The Constitution shall be published in English by the 1st of November and in French by the 1st of December of the same year.

ARTICLE 14

Amendments to the Rules

1. Council shall adopt, amend and revoke such Rules and Regulations as it considers desirable to fulfil the Objects of the IAAF.

2. A Rule or Regulation made by Council shall not be inconsistent with, or beyond the powers of Council, set out in this Constitution.
3. A request to amend any Rule including a Technical Rule, unless made by the Council or any permanent Committee, must be submitted to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) at least two months prior to any Council meeting at which it is to be considered. A proposal to amend a Rule may only be submitted by a Member, the Council, a Council Member, any permanent Committee, any Commission established by the Council, or by an Area Association council or congress.
4. When a Rule is adopted, amended or revoked by Council a fixed date for when the adoption, amendment or revocation shall take effect shall be stated, failing which the amendment shall take effect on the date of publication of the new IAAF Rules handbook in English in accordance with Article 14.5.
5. The Rules made by Council shall be published in English by the 1st of November and in French by the 1st of December of the same year.
6. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) shall notify all Member Federations and Area Associations of any adoption, amendment or revocation of the Rules and Regulations within 14 days of the Council's decision to do so. All Rules and Regulations will be published on the IAAF website.

  - (h) to impose any other sanction it may deem to be appropriate.
2. The Congress may exercise its suspensive powers under Article 15.1(a), and may reinstate a Member under Article 15.1(b) only if:
  - (a) a proposal for such suspension or reinstatement, as the case may be, has been received by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) at least six months before the relevant Congress meeting (unless the Member is already suspended by the Council, or is suspended by the Council during those six months); and
  - (b) either:
    - (i) the proposal has been sent by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to Members at least four months before the said Congress; or
    - (ii) the Members have been informed at least four months before the said Congress of a Member's suspension by the Council and of a Council proposal that the Member be suspended by Congress; or
    - (iii) the Members have been informed at least four months before the said Congress of a Council

- proposal that the Member should be reinstated; or
  - (iv) the Members have been informed in writing, before the start of the Congress, that the Council has suspended a Member within the four months preceding the Congress and of a Council proposal that the Member should be suspended by Congress; and
  - (c) the proposal obtains a Special Majority.
- 3. The Congress may exercise its suspensive powers under Article 15.1(a) only if:
  - (a) a Member has failed to pay the subscription for the preceding year by the 31st of December of that year; or
  - (b) in the opinion of the Congress, the Member is in breach of the Constitution or any one or more of the Rules (other than the Former Code of Ethics); or
  - (c) the conduct of the Member, or the Government of the Country or Territory that the Member represents, breaches, or remains in breach of, the Objects of the IAAF; or
  - (d) the Congress considers that the Member does not fulfil the requirements of eligibility for Membership.
- 4. Before the Congress may exercise its suspensive powers under Article 15.1(a), the Member must have been sent notice in writing of the grounds for suspension at least one month before the Congress meeting, at which the Member will be afforded a reasonable opportunity of being heard.
- 5. A Member who has been suspended by the Congress under Article 15.1(a) may request, provided that notice in writing is received by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) at least six months before the next ensuing Congress, that a proposal for that Member's re-instatement be considered at the next Congress meeting.
- 6. A Member who has been suspended by the Congress under Article 15.1(a) shall automatically cease to be suspended:
  - (a) at the end of the fixed period; or
  - (b) once, in the opinion of Council, the set of circumstances specified has changed or ceases to exist.
- 7. The Council shall have the following powers under this Article:
  - (a) to suspend a Member from Membership until the next meeting of Congress or for any shorter period;
  - (b) to reinstate a Member who has been suspended by the Council in accordance with Article 15.7(a);

  - (h) to remove or deny accreditation to officers or other representatives of a Member; and
  - (i) to impose any other sanction it may deem to be appropriate.
- 8. The Council may exercise its suspensive powers under Article 15.7(a) only if:
  - (a) a Member has failed to pay the appropriate subscription for the preceding year by the 31st of December of that year; or
  - (b) in the opinion of the Council, the Member is in breach of the Constitution or any one or more of the Rules (other than the Former Code of Ethics); or
  - (c) the conduct of the Member, or the Government of the Country or Territory that the Member

- represents, breaches, or remains in breach of, the Objects of the IAAF; or
- (d) the Council considers that the Member does not fulfil the requirements of eligibility for Membership;
  - (e) in the event of a conflict bringing the activities of a Member to a standstill, the Member has failed to comply with the provisions of Article 5.2.
9. Before the Council may exercise its suspensive powers under Article 15.7(a), the Member must have been sent a notice in writing of the grounds for suspension and must have been given a reasonable opportunity to be heard on the matter.
  10. Any hearing under Article 15.9 shall take place before a three person panel appointed by the President no later than 60 days following the date of service of the above notice on the Member. The panel shall report in writing to the Council at its next meeting and the Council shall decide whether or not to suspend the Member on the basis of the findings in the panel's report. The Council's decision shall be communicated to the Member in writing.
  11. A decision of the Council whether to suspend a Member under Article 15.7(a) or to issue any other sanction under Article 15.7 shall be subject to an appeal before the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS).
  12. In any case where a Member has been suspended or has had any other sanction issued against it by the Council in accordance with Article 15.11, such a decision, together with any CAS award where applicable, shall be reported to the next Congress which shall take any further action it considers to be necessary.

ARTICLE 16

Athletics Integrity Unit

1. There shall be an Athletics Integrity Unit established and maintained by the IAAF.
2. The role of the Athletics Integrity Unit is to protect the integrity of Athletics. It will do this through education and testing, and by investigating and prosecuting anti-doping rule violations and other breaches of integrity within the Rules and Regulations (including the Integrity Code of Conduct and Rules based on the World Anti-Doping Code).
3. The Athletics Integrity Unit shall be part of, but operate independently from, the IAAF, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations, except to the extent that:
  - (a) Council will make and amend the applicable Rules and Regulations;
  - (b) Council will allocate funding to the Integrity Unit to enable it to undertake its functions and fulfil its responsibilities;
  - (c) Personnel working in the Integrity Unit will be employed or engaged by the IAAF;
  - (d) Council will elect a Council Member to be a non-voting member of the Integrity Unit Board in accordance with the Rules;

    - (i) One (1) member with significant governance experience (who shall be the chairperson of the Integrity Unit Board);
    - (ii) One (1) member with governance experience and experience in anti-doping or other integrity matters;
    - (iii) One (1) member who is a lawyer;

(referred to as “Independent Members of the Integrity Unit Board”)
  - (b) A Council Member elected by Council, who shall be non-voting; and
  - (c) The Head of the Integrity Unit, who shall also be non-voting.
6. The Integrity Unit Board shall have such duties, powers, responsibilities and procedures as are set out in the Rules and Regulations which shall include reporting to Congress annually.
7. The inaugural Integrity Unit Board will be appointed by Council.
8. The term of office for the members of the inaugural Integrity Unit Board commenced on 3 April 2017 or a date specified by Council and end at the first Council meeting held after the 2019 Election.
9. Members of the inaugural Integrity Unit Board can be re-appointed by approval of Congress for further terms of office in accordance with this Constitution, without limitation.

Integrity Unit Board Appointments Panel

10. There shall be an Integrity Unit Board Appointments Panel whose role it is to identify, recruit, assess and make recommendations to Congress of the Independent Members of the Integrity Unit Board, (including the chairperson of the Integrity Unit Board) to be appointed to the Integrity Unit Board.
11. The Integrity Unit Board Appointments Panel shall be independent of the Integrity Unit Board and shall be responsible for:
  - (a) Identifying the skills, expertise and experience which may be necessary for the Integrity Unit Board;
  - (b) Identifying and inviting suitable candidates to apply to be Independent Members of the Integrity Board;
  - (c) Publically advertising the vacancies including position descriptions for the Independent Members of the Integrity Board;
  - (d) Receiving and assessing applications from candidates for appointment of the Independent Members of the Integrity Board including undertaking such enquiries and holding interviews and meetings as it sees fit;
  - (e) As soon as practicable and within three months prior to each Election Congress meeting, recommending to Congress the applicants whom the Integrity Unit Board Appointments Panel considers best suit the position(s) for consideration and vote by the Delegates at the Election Congress meeting; and
  - (f) Such other related matters as set out in the Rules and Regulations.
12. The Integrity Unit Board Appointments Panel shall be comprised of the following three (3) people:
  - (a) The chairperson of the Integrity Unit Board;
  - (b) One (1) person appointed by Council who is independent of the IAAF and is experienced in governance and the functions and appointment processes of directors;

(c) One (1) Council Member, elected by Council.

13. The Council shall appoint the two members of the inaugural Integrity Unit Board Appointments Panel, specified in Article 16.12(b) and (c), by no later than 1st January 2019.
14. The inaugural Integrity Unit Board Appointments Panel will be convened and commence its duties no later than 1st January 2019 in order that it can make recommendations to Congress for the appointment of the Independent Members of the Integrity Unit Board, at the 2019 Election Congress.
15. Members of the Integrity Unit Board Appointments Panel can be re-appointed for further terms of office in accordance with this Constitution, without limitation.
16. The procedures of the Integrity Unit Board Appointments Panel shall be set out in the Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 17

Integrity Code of Conduct

1. Council shall make, and may amend, Rules and Regulations incorporating an Integrity Code of Conduct which sets out the standards of conduct required for persons:
  - (a) who are or are seeking to become IAAF Officials;
  - (b) who are Area Officials or Member Federation Officials (limited to their relations or dealings with the IAAF);
  - (c) who are bidding to host or hosting International Competitions;
  - (d) who are engaged by or are acting on behalf of the IAAF, including IAAF Staff;
  - (e) who are participating in Athletics in International Competitions, including, but not limited to athletes and athlete support personnel; or
  - (f) who agree in writing to be bound by the Integrity Code of Conduct.
2. The Integrity Code of Conduct took effect on 3 April 2017.

Disciplinary Tribunal

1. There shall be a Disciplinary Tribunal established and maintained by the IAAF to hear and decide all breaches of the Integrity Code of Conduct in accordance with the Rules and Regulations.
2. The Disciplinary Tribunal shall operate independently of the IAAF in accordance with the Rules and Regulations, except to the extent that:
  - (a) Council will make and amend the applicable Rules and Regulations;
  - (b) Council will allocate funding to the Disciplinary Tribunal to enable it to undertake its functions and fulfil its responsibilities;
  - (c) The secretariat of the Disciplinary Tribunal shall be approved by Council on the recommendation of the Integrity Unit Board;
  - (d) The members of the Disciplinary Tribunal will be appointed by Congress, on the recommendation of the Council, except for the following who will be appointed by the Council:
    - (i) the inaugural members of the Disciplinary Tribunal;

- (ii) any members positions on the Disciplinary Tribunal which are vacant where such vacancy has resulted in the total number of Disciplinary Tribunal Members being less than six (6);
- (e) The Disciplinary Tribunal shall report to Congress annually.

Eligibility and Vetting Panel

1. A person seeking election or applying to be an IAAF Official (Applicant), or to remain in office as an IAAF Official (Existing IAAF Official) shall be Eligible.
2. To be Eligible, every Applicant and Existing IAAF Official shall be approved to:
  - (a) Have satisfied the Integrity Check including all applicable disclosure obligations as required and specified in the Rules and Regulations; and
  - (b) Not be Ineligible.
3. The decision to approve that an Applicant and Existing IAAF Official is Eligible, or otherwise shall be made by the Vetting Panel, except for the prospective or current members of the Vetting Panel, in which case the decision shall be made by independent persons appointed by Council.
4. An Applicant or existing IAAF Official will be Ineligible if:
  - (a) the person is a member of IAAF Staff;
  - (b) the person is declared by a Relevant Authority to be an undischarged bankrupt or is subject to a condition not yet fulfilled or any order under insolvency laws;
  - (c) the person has been convicted by a Relevant Authority of any offence punishable by a term of imprisonment of two (2) or more years (whether or not a term of imprisonment is imposed) unless that person has obtained a pardon or has served the sentence imposed on them;
  - (d) the person is prohibited by a Relevant Authority from being a director or promoter of or being concerned or taking part in the management of a company for breach or non-compliance with any law applicable to that person;
  - (e) the person is subject to an order by a Relevant Authority that the person is lacking in competence to manage their own affairs;
  - (f) the person is a minor by law;
  - (g) the person is deprived of his or her civil rights by proper application of the law;
  - (h) the person is serving a period of ineligibility for breach of the Former Code of Ethics or the Integrity Code of Conduct;
  - (i) the person is found by a Relevant Authority to have committed an anti-doping rule violation at any time, including any person who has served any period of ineligibility for that violation;
  - (j) the person was removed from office by Congress, Council or the Executive Board in accordance with this Constitution, the Rules or Regulations;
  - (k) the person is otherwise prohibited from holding such position, or any similar position, under any other circumstances as provided by law.
5. If the Vetting Panel decides, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations, that an Applicant or Existing IAAF Official has not satisfied an Integrity Check or that any of the circumstances listed in Article 19.4 apply to that person, the Vetting Panel or independent persons in Article 19.8, as the case may be, shall declare the person Ineligible. A declaration to that effect will have immediate effect.
6. Article 19 does not limit or waive the right to suspend or remove an Existing IAAF Official if specified in this Constitution.

7. There shall be a Vetting Panel whose role it is to decide if an Applicant or Existing IAAF Official is Eligible to be, or remain in office as, an IAAF Official in accordance with the Rules and Regulations.
8. Subject to Article 19.10, the Vetting Panel shall be comprised of three persons approved by Congress who are independent of the IAAF with experience in vetting or screening applicants and candidates for appointments to official positions, on the recommendation of Council at each Election Congress.
9. Subject to Article 19.10, the term of office for members of the Vetting Panel shall be four (4) years commencing at the conclusion of the Election Congress at which their appointment is effective, and expiring at the commencement of the first Council meeting held after the next Election Congress meeting.
10. The inaugural Vetting Panel will have the same composition as described in Article 19.8 but will be appointed by Council as soon as practicable after the commencement of this Constitution. The term of office of the inaugural Vetting Panel will end at the first Council meeting held after the 2019 Election.
11. Members of the Vetting Panel (including the inaugural Vetting Panel) may be reappointed for further terms of office without limitation.
12. Members of the Vetting Panel shall be Eligible in accordance with Article 19.2.
13. The decision whether a prospective member or current member of the Vetting Panel is Eligible shall be undertaken by at least two people appointed by Council who are independent of the IAAF in all respects. These independent persons shall have the same duties, powers, responsibilities and procedures as the Vetting Panel.
14. The Vetting Panel shall have such duties, powers, responsibilities and procedures as set out in the Rules and Regulations which shall include reporting to Congress annually.
15. The decisions of the Vetting Panel in Article 19.7 or the independent persons in Article 19.13, as the case may be, shall be final, subject to a right of appeal to CAS in accordance with the Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE 20

Disputes

1. All disputes arising under this Constitution shall, in accordance with its provisions, be subject to an appeal to the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne (CAS).
2. The CAS appeal shall be in accordance with the rules of CAS currently in force, provided always that the CAS Panel shall be bound to apply the Articles of this Constitution and the appellant shall file its statement of appeal within sixty days of the date of communication in writing of the decision that is to be appealed.
3. The decision of CAS shall be final and binding on the parties and no right of appeal will lie from the CAS decision. The decision shall have immediate effect and all Members shall take all necessary action to ensure that it is effective.
4. The governing law of any such appeal shall be the law of Monaco and the arbitration shall be conducted in English, unless the parties agree otherwise.

5. All disputes arising under the Rules and Regulations shall be resolved in accordance with their provisions.

ARTICLE 21

Governing Law

The governing law of the IAAF shall be the law of Monaco.

ARTICLE 22

IAAF Office

1. The registered office of the IAAF shall be in Monaco at a location to be determined by the Council. Any decision to change the registered office to a location outside of Monaco may be made only with the approval of Congress.
2. The IAAF Office shall carry out the daily administration of the IAAF in accordance with the decisions of the Congress, the Council, the President and the Executive Board.
3. The IAAF Office shall be managed by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO).

ARTICLE 23

Dissolution

1. The IAAF may be dissolved only at a Special Congress convened for the purpose and by a Special Majority.
  2. In the event of dissolution, the Congress shall appoint one or more liquidators who shall discharge all debts and liabilities incurred on behalf of the IAAF. The remaining assets, if any, shall be donated to a suitable body for the ongoing promotion and development of Athletics.
  3. At the conclusion of the liquidation, the liquidators shall submit a final report to the Congress, which shall declare the liquidation closed.
